WeChat Afrika stel skenkingskanaal ter ondersteuning van boere in nood bekend

GEMSBOK-UPINGTON: Suid-Afrika is vasgevang in die ergste droogte wat nog ooit in die land se geskiedenis aangeteken is en verslae dui aan dat dit die ekonomie tot R20 miljard kan kos.

Om boere in nood by te staan, het WeChat Afrika, in vennootskap met Agri SA, 'n skenkingskanaal wat op jou slimfoon gebaseer is, outomaties WeChat sal jou eerste skenking aan jou terugbesorg, deur tot en met R50 terug in jou WeChat-beursie (WeChat Wallet) te plaas. "Suid-Afrika is tans vasgevang in die ergste droogte van die afgelope dekade", sê Omri van Zyl, hoof uitvoerende beampte van Agri SA. "Die Agri SA droogterampfondse is geskep om boere, plaaswerkers en gemeenskappe in nood te help, terwyl die land met ernstige voedsel-, voor- en watertekorte sukkel. Elke bydrae help."

"Ons is bly dat WeChat by ons saak betrokke geraak het en ons maak gebruik van hulle platform om mense aan te moedig om self ook betrokke te raak."

"WeChat het die skenkingsproses baie eenvoudig gemaak en ons ondersteun die idee dat tegnologie gebruik word om soveel Suid-Afrikaners as moontlik te bereik."

Gebruikers ontvang 'n eenmalige korting vir die geld wat hulle skenk

Die WeChat-betalingsplatform (WeChat Wallet) kan deur enige iemand gebruik word wat toegang tot 'n Android- en iOS-selfoon het. Jy laai eenvoudig die app af, maak die virtuele "beursie" oop en skenk 'n bedrag van jou keuse om sodoenende hulp te verleen.

Vir elke donasie van R50 of minder, sal WeChat geld in jou beursie terugplaas. Jy het die keuse om 'n tweede keer te skenk, en sodoenende die korting wat jy ontvang het ook weer terug in die droogtefonds te plaas. WeChat sê dat hierdie projek alledaagse Suid-Afrikaners aanmoedig om boere in nood te help.

Die WeChat beursie word deur Standard Bank Suid-Afrika gedryf.

Hulle het ingestem om administratiewe kostes tot die absolute minimum te hou. In totaal word nie meer as 3% van elke individuele skenking as gevolg van administratiewe kostes afgetrek nie, wat beteken dat 97% van die skenking aan die boer gegee word.

Brett Loubser, Hoof van WeChat Afrika, sê:

"Ons het meer en meer bewus geraak van die groot aantal berigte oor die stygende getal boere wat aansoek doen vir noodbystand, sowel as goedgehartige Suid-Afrikaners wat bereid is om hulle te help in hierdie moeilike tyd. Die skenkingskanaal stel gebruikers van die WeChat-beursie in staat om 'n skenking aan 'n fonds te maak wat hulpbronne en befondsing, teen die beste koers beskikbaar, sal toeken.

"Ons is toegewy daaraan om oplossings vorendag te bring wat 'n beduidende impak sal hê. As gevolg hiervan wil ons diegene beloon wat ten spyte van die moeilike ekonomiese tydskeidsperk steeds bereid is om 'n rol te speel in die bou, handhawing en ondersteuning van hierdie noodsaaklike sektor."

"WeChat gebruik al lank reeds tegnologie om mense en besighede te verbind. Ons is bly om te kan sê dat ons 'n bekostigbare manier gevind het om besighede en verbruikers te verbind en sodoenende transaksies te doen. Ons wil elke dag makliker maak," het Loubser bygevoeg.

Om die droogte verligtingspoging te ondersteun, laai WeChat op jou selfoon hier af.

Sodra dit geïnstalleer is, druk op die "+" knoppie, druk dan op "Scan QR code", en mik jou selfoon oor die onderstaande kode. Volg die eenvoudige instruksies om jou skenking te maak.
